Confirming our obligation to treat all persons taking no active part in hostilities humanely and without adverse distinction;

Mindful that women, men, girls and boys can be perpetrators as well as victims of sexual violence, and recognizing that women and girls are particularly targeted and face additional risks;

Taking due account that international law prohibits all forms of sexual violence, and recognizing that acts of sexual violence may amount to war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide;

Resolved to play a role in ending impunity for sexual violence;

Recognizing that sexual violence is a form of cruel, inhumane and degrading treatment or punishment, and accepting that such treatment or punishment of any person cannot be justified under any circumstance;

Reiterating that international humanitarian norms apply to and oblige all parties to armed conflict;

HEREBY solemnly commit ourselves to the following terms:

9. TO TREAT this commitment as one step or part of a broader commitment in principle to the ideal of humanitarian norms, particularly of international humanitarian law and human rights, and to contribute to their respect in field practice as well as to the further development of humanitarian norms for armed conflict.
